His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint his Grace the Duke of Kent, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Bedford, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Manchester Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Huntingdon, their Lordſhips this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oath of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majeſty having alſo been pleaſed by Letters Patents under the Seal of Great-Britain, to Conſtitute the Right Honourable the Earl of Northampton Conſtable of his Majeſty's Tower of London; his Lordſhip this Day by his Majeſty's Command took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo the Oath of a Conſtable of the Tower of London.

St James's, December 6. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Lord Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty; and alſo of the Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Corporation of Bedford; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Bruce, Recorder of the ſaid Borough.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, at an Adjournment of the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County at Black Fryars the 16th Day of October; preſented to his Majeſty by Captain James Roach, High Sheriff, accompanied by Major William Connock, Joſeph Matthews, Eſq. and ſeveral others of that County, who all had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Miniſters, and others, the Inhabitants of the Town of Bandon in the Kingdom of Ireland; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Freemen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Portſmouth in the County of Southampton; preſented to his Majeſty by Captain Henry Stanyford and Mr. Thomas Brancker, who had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

All which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

Conſtantinople, November 1. N. S. Some Days ago the Venetian Ambaſſador had an Audience of the Grand Vizier, in which he complained, that contrary to the Tenour of the Treaty in force, the Corſairs of Dulcigno were allowed by the Porte to commit Hoſtilities againſt the Subjects of the Republick, and deſired that the Commiſſions granted to thoſe Corſairs ſhould be called in. The Vizier anſwered, that the ſaid Corſairs were not commiſſioned by the Porte, however he would diſpatch proper Orders for putting a ſtop to the Hoſtilities complained of, as he has ſince done: At the ſame time he deſired of the Ambaſſador, whom he treated with all Marks of Civility and Expreſſions of Good-Will, tha the Republick would on their part forbear to aſſiſt with Ammunition and Officers, in Breach of the ſaid Treaty, the rebellious Subjects of the Porte, meaning the Montenegrins; and that on the contrary they would remove out of the way whatever might give Occaſion for a Rupture. The ſtoring of Magazines in and near Negropont is continued with all Diligence, and all the Ships of War which are in a Condition for Service are actually repairing in the Arſenal here: And tho' 'tis given out, that the Deſign of the Porte is againſt Malta, 'tis generally believed to be againſt the Republick of Venice, and that the Morea will be attacked the next Spring.

Venice, November 24. N. S. Men are kept at Work continually in our Arſenal on ſeveral Ships of War, one of which of 60 Guns was launched the 19th Inſtant, and another the 20th, and eight will be ready to put to Sea together very ſhortly, beſides Gallies and other Veſſels that are alſo fitting out.

Vienna, Nov. 28. N. S. The Chevalier Girardini an Italian, is ſent hither by the Elector of Cologne, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary, to make that Prince's Submiſſion to the Emperor, and give Aſſurances of his Fidelity for the future. On Sunday laſt, a Son of Count Staremberg the Preſident of the Chamber, was Married to a Daughter of that Count Staremberg (Brother of the ſaid Preſident) who defended this City againſt the Turks in 1683, a Diſpenſation being obtained from the Pope for the Marriage, becauſe they were ſo nearly related. About 60 of the Nobility in very rich Habits, and mounted on Horſes finely accoutred, went in Cavalcade with the Bridegroom from his Houſe to the Court, where the Marriage was Solemnized, and all the Company entertained at Supper, the new married Couple being placed at a Table by the ſide of that where the Emperor and Empreſs ſat. The 26th the States of the Lower Auſtria met at their Houſe in this City, and the Emperor made a Speech to them, requiring a Subſidy towards maintaining his Troops, and aſſuring them he was ſorry his Occaſions indiſpenſibly obliged him to burthen the People in time of Peace, but that he was endeavouring and hoped to ſettle his Finances on ſuch a Foot as might enable him to eaſe them for the future.

Ratisbon, Decemb. 3. N. S. The 30th of laſt Month, it was notified to the Diet, on the part of the Emperor, that the Ratifications of the Treaty of Baden have been exchanged; and the ſeveral States of the Empire were exhorted in the Name of his Imperial Majeſty, to perform without delay whatever they might find themſelves obliged to do by that Treaty: At the ſame time his Imperial Majeſty's Confirmation of the full Powers given by the Diet to General Roht to take Poſſeſſion and be Governor of Fort Kehl, was alſo notified; and on this Occaſion, the furniſhing the Arrears to the Military Cheſt, and ſuch other Supplies as might be neceſſary for the Safety of the Empire, was earneſtly recommended.
